*"The play, Adjmi's best so far, is as rich and lustrous as they come.

New York Times

Following the production announcement earlier this month, Stereophonic is confirmed to run at the Duke of York's Theatre from 24 May to 20 September 2025, with a gala night on 12 June 2025. Tickets go on sale from midday today, Tuesday 28 January, so click here to book your tickets; www.stereophonicplay.com

Last year, Stereophonic became the most Tony Award-nominated play ever and the most Tony Award-winning show of 2024. It completed its Broadway run on 12 January 2025, after extending twice and recouping its investment.

Original cast members reprising their highly lauded performances from Broadway include Andrew R. Butler as Charlie, Eli Gelb as Grover and Chris Stack as Simon. Further casting to be announced in due course.

Stereophonic mines the agony and the ecstasy of creation as it zooms in on a music studio in 1976. Here, an up-and-coming rock band recording a new album finds itself suddenly on the cusp of superstardom. The ensuing pressures could spark their breakup — or their breakthrough.

In Stereophonic, Adjmi invites the audience to immerse themselves—with fly-on-the-wall intimacy—in the powder keg process of a band on the brink of blowing up.

Stereophonic became the most Tony-nominated play ever after receiving a record-breaking 13 nominations. The full list of nominations is:
